The percussion score is written on a single staff with a treble clef and a common time signature (C). The music is composed of eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together. The score is divided into four main sections labeled A, B, C, and D. Section A begins with a forte (f) dynamic marking. Section B contains a repeat sign. Section C also contains a repeat sign. Section D ends with a first ending (1.) and a second ending (2.), both marked with repeat signs. The notation includes various rhythmic patterns and rests, with some notes beamed together to indicate sixteenth notes.
